

THE NORFOLK ARTS AWARDS RETURN FOR 2019

The Norfolk Arts Awards will return this year with a bigger venue and a way for art organisations to nominate themselves.

The team behind the awards, which are part of the annual Hostry Festival, have announced that this year the ceremony will take place in St George's Theatre in Great Yarmouth on Friday, October 18.

The Norfolk Arts Awards founder, Stash Kirkbride, said: "There will be more seats available to the general public, more live entertainment, and importantly engagement with people and projects from Great Yarmouth and the surrounding area."

In previous years – alongside the public's suggestions through the EDP People's Choice Awards - a panel of previous nominees and winners, professional practitioners and those in the know have been invited to make suggestions for award nominees.

New for 2019 is a way for the county's arts organisations to make their own nominations, giving them the chance to celebrate outstanding staff, practitioners and projects.

Arts organisations can make their own suggestions for award winners by going to norfolkartswards.org/ nominate and filling in the online form.

The closing date for award winner suggestions is April 7.

Introduced just last year, the rare, beautiful Daphne 'Perfume Princess' is a breeding breakthrough and now a multi-award winning variety, as voted by experts 'in the trade'!

No ordinary Daphne - 'Perfume Princess' has very long-lasting, super-fragrant blooms - the largest of any Daphne. The flowers appear in clusters along the entirety of all stems - starting mid-pink and fading to white! It is the perfect shrub to grow in your garden, the stems make wonderful cut flowers!

It's very easy to grow in any garden & perfect for patio pots.

Totally winter hardy, it is guaranteed to grow and thrive anywhere in the UK.
